

National Seminar on
Dravidian Herbal Heritage and Modern Clinical Systems

[NSDHHMCS - 2020]

Date 24th -25th February 2020

The Department of Biotechnology, Dravidian University inaugurated National Seminar on Dravidian Herbal Heritage and Modern Clinical Systems [NSDHHMCS - 2020] on 24th and 25th February 2020 by Hon'ble Vice-Chancellor Prof. G. Lokanadha Reddy, Dravidian University along with Prof. T. Anuradha, Registrar, Dravidian University, Kuppam and faculty of Department of Biotechnology, in the deliration the participants from various University/institutions of Andhra Pradesh, Telangana, Kerala, Karnataka, and Tamil Nadu are participated and presented their research findings in the area of medicinal plants and their applications. The University invited faculty from various universities to give lead lectures for the benefits of participant's research scholars and students. In this platform delegates exchange their ideas and research findings and also explored, expressed new areas of medical plants for the benefit of society.

