

About the University

The Dravidian University was established in year 1997 through a Legislature Act of Andhra Pradesh and conceived as an Inter-State Institution. The University was established at the tri-lingual junction, Kuppam in Chittoor District, A.P., 8 k.m away from Tamil Nadu, 4 km, away from Karnataka and hardly about four hours drive to Kerala, basically to promote a spirit of integration and strong bonds of fraternity among the major Dravidian language speakers of the Southern states and to advance studies and research in the integrated body of Dravidian Cultural heritage. The University is located in a serene rural setting with pleasant greenery spread over the spacious campus of about 1000 acres. The University was accredited by NAAC with 'B' Grade and also has been ranked 9th amongst the cleanest Higher Education Institutions in the country.
